

Peter is a Madison native where in the 1970s he studied with a protégé of the Solo Jazz Guitar master George Van Eps. He has reemerged recently in the Twin Cities covering jazz standards with occasional blues and bossa nova flavors.